Gov. Philipp Sends Message to Legislature Which is Read Today

HEDDLES TOOK NOTHING

Swenson, Van Scoy, Reese, and Mrs. Morgan Are Down for Salaries

BY FRED L. HOLMES.

The state council of defense expended $73,984.25, according to the special message of Gov. Philipp read in both houses of the legislature this morning.

W. S. Heddles, Madison, the present chairman of the state council of defense, took no salary and paid his own expenses.

Magnus Swenson, Madison, the first chairman of the state council of defense, received $155 in salary and $495.04 in traveling expenses.

Gov. Philipp submitted an itemized statement of all sums in excess of $100 drawn by any single person. The governor's message shows that the largest salary expense was A. H. Melville, who acted as secretary. He drew $4,166.66. A number of the members of the state council received varying sums as salary.

"The council has been in existence 25 months and during the period of the war rendered a valuable service to our state and country," says Gov. Philipp in his message. "There has been some discussion in the press of the cost of carrying on this organization, and it has been suggested that the legislature should be advised regarding the expenditures."

Gov. Philipp then submits a statement showing all sums of $100 or more paid to any one person.

"I would not wish to dismiss this subject without calling your attention to the fact that there has been a well organized council of defense in every county of this state and that by far the largest per cent of the services was rendered by the people without cost," says the governor. "The record of the institution will stand as a lasting evidence to the fine patriotic spirit of the people of our state during the period of the war."

BERLIN UNIONS IN DEMANDS FOR SIGNING

Soldiers' and Workers' Council Favor Peace and Seek Allied Aid

AUSTRIA SHOULD PAY

Germans Want Ally to Help Raise Indemnity for France, Belgium

(By the Associated Press)

BULLETIN.

BERLIN—The greater Berlin soldiers' and workers' council today adopted a resolution demanding that the peace treaty be signed and appealing to the proletariat of the allied countries.

Note This Week.

BERLIN—The German cabinet's declaration issued officially and exclusively through the Associated Press, Tuesday, that Germany would decline to sign the peace terms, reflects the underlying note of the official reply to be made to the allied and associated powers. The tatement represents the preamble of the document which Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the heah of the German delegation, is expected to deliver before the end of the week.

The delay of several days in the framing of the reply has been due to the absence of confirmation from Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau and his associates of decisions reached at Berlin. The Germans have been carrying on deliberations at no less than three places—Versailles, Spa and Berlin—this separation making more difficult the work of coordination and unifying the steps decided upon.

Even This Merkle Pulled a Boner

In the wee small hours this morning, Charles J. Merkle, 407 East Main street, came home under the influence of the demon rum and proceeded to raise a rumpus.

As a result he paid a fine of $5 and costs in Superior court on his plea of guilty to charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

STRIKE STILL ON AT TWO PLANTS HERE

Difficulties Arise at Four Lakes Ordnance and Scanlan-Morris

Difficulties arising between returning workmen and employers at the Scanlan-Morris company have caused a break so that the strike continues there and at the Four Lakes Ordnance company.

Federal Administrator Winter arrived in town this morning and has opened conferences with employes. He expects to see both employes and employers this afternoon.

Labor leaders report a satisfactory meeting with Jackson Reuter of the Madison Plow company yesterday. At this meeting the Winter agreement for a settlement of the strike was presented and is being considered today by Mr. Reuter. Labor leaders believe a satisfactory settlement at this plant will be reached soon.

Strikers at the Four Lakes company and the Scanlan-Morris company are leaving their case entirely to Administrator Winter. They contend it is up to him to enforce the agreement reached with the companies.

Mr. Winter this morning before opening his conference with either side seemed to believe that the arbitrary attitude of both sides had caused the difficulty when they attempted to get together.

While optimistic, Administrator Winter considers that there is yet considerable to be accomplished before the strike is finally and satisfactorily settled.

The situation at the other shops where from 10 to 15 per cent have been put back to work, remains the same. The larger number of the employes who struck have registered for employment but are without work so far.

Middleton "Party" Framer Fined $25

Rudolph Jessner, the taxicab driver who was arrested week before last because of his assistance in framing up a little "party" to Middleton in which it is alleged he furnished the name and address of young women who would like to go, was fined $25 and costs in superior court this morning. The original plea of not guilty was changed to nolle contendre. Jessner has a wife and family, he says.

JOHNSON SALARY ON DRAFT BOARD WENT TO PAL MOVEMENT

To the Editor of The Capital Times:—

In view of the recent criticism of Mr. Carl Johnson of the Gisholt Machine company because of his acceptance of pay for services on the Draft Board, I have been requested by various members of the Kiwanis club, of which I am president, to make public the way in which this money was actually used.

Mr. Johnson endorsed his checks directly to the Kiwanis club to be used in the Soldier Pal movement, which the club was then promoting. It will be remembered that the Soldier Pal movement was organized by the Kiwanis club and developed into a national movement. Mr. Johnson became interested because, as a member of the Draft Board, he realized how important it was that the boys who were leaving for the front should be kept in touch with their home communities by such methods as the Kiwanis club was employing.

At Mr. Johnson's request no publicity was given to this gift.

Yours very truly,
The MADISON KIWANIS CLUB,
P. E. Stark, President.

EIGHT HOUR MEASURE IS KILLED TODAY

Vote is 41 to 38 on Final Passage; Engrossed on May 8th

MAY BE RECONSIDERED

Johnson Leads Fight for the Bill; Amendments Are Offered

WHAT ROY DOES WHEN THE CROWD ISN'T LOOKING

O. D. Brandenburg, who has been a bitter opponent of organized labor and who has been fighting the Johnson eight hour bill, was sitting at the press table in the assembly when the vote on the eight hour bill was taken.

When the vote showing the defeat of the Johnson measure was announced Senator Roy P. Wilcox, recent candidate for governor came up to Mr. Brandenburg, extended his hand, and said:

"You did noble work!"

By FRED L. HOLMES

The assembly today killed the Johnson eight-hour day bill by a vote of 41 to 38. It is possible that a motion for reconsideration may be made on Friday because the vote has been so close. The bill was subjected to over an hour of debate.

Following is the action that was taken at different stages of the bill by the assembly:

Assemblyman M. E. Johnson withdrew substitute amendment No. 3 A which would modify some of the stringent provisions of the committee measure.

By a vote of 48 to 29 the assembly killed an amendment which would bring all classes of laborers including farmers under the eight hour law and subject them to a time and a half pay for overtime.

By a vote of 58 to 19 the assembly killed the Killa substitute which would limit the hours of labor to 48 hours a week, but would permit the working of an employe 24 hours a day for two days if the employer demanded.

An amendment was then offered to the engrossed bill exempting farmers. Rejection was at first refused by a vote of 28 to 51, but this later was killed by a vote of 38 to 41.

On motion of Nolan the eight hour day bill wa skilled by a vote of 41 to 38.

Charges that the republican party, the democratic party and the Equity society were not living up to their party platforms if they rejected the eight hour bill featured the debate in the assembly. The debate was led by Assemblyman Johnson. Assemblyman Ploetz opposed the Killa bill because he said it permitted a 24 hour work day for two days a week and he believed it too long a work day for any man. At different stages of the proceedings Edwards offered amendments to bring farmers and all classes under the terms of the eight hour measure.

WOULD OUST WINNIPEG'S ALIEN LABOR

Newspaper Favors Clearing Community of Foreigners to End Strike

(By the Associated Press)

WINNIPEG—Elevator service was resumed in some of the downtown buildings. The Winnipeg Free Press made this announcement:

"Considerably over 100 of the employes of one of the large retail houses have asked to be taken back. Other large firms report a similar desire to return."

The Free Press indorsed the attitude of the Great War Veterans' association toward alien residents of Canada who are classed as radicals. The announcement says:

"Sensible Canadians of all shades of opinion want a square deal all around and industrial peace.

"The surest way to break the hold of the anarchist five upon union labor is to clear the aliens out of this community. The idea behind the one big union is to employ masses of rough uneducated foreigners, who know nothing of our customs and our civilization, to browbeat and override the intelligent and skilled craftsmen of the more technical trades, who are numerically weaker."

Oust the Reds.

In a statement this morning, Mayor Gray said:

"The constituted authorities are determined to stamp out the bolshevik or red element in Winnipeg.

"The town is open. All business may go ahead as in the past.

"No one section of the public has any right to dictate food terms to any other section of the public. This principle will be strictly adhered to by the constituted authorities."

Mayor Gray received a heavy labor vote at the last municipal election.

Rail Line Open.

DULUTH, Minn.—Charles Skog, divisional freight and passenger agent for the Duluth, Winnipeg and Pacific railroad, on his return today to Duluth from Winnipeg, said:

"We were advised today that baggage could again be accepted for Winnipeg, which means resumption of necessary passenger travel and no further inconvenience on transcontinental trips."

LOCAL WOMEN TO BOOST FOR THEIR UNION

Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night Plans Membership of All Women

A campaign was inaugurated at the meeting of the wives of 150 union laborers at the Atlas hotel last night to increase the organization until it takes in the wife of every union laborer in the city.

A committee appointed to investigate the cost of living in Madison was instructed to work with the ice committee and the milk committee recently appointed by the Madison Federation of Labor.

The meeting was addressed by A. R. McDonald of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. J. H. McQuaid of the trainmen's union and Miss Mabel Leslie of the telephone operators' union.

Mr. McQuaid and Mr. McDonald both spoke briefly of the benefits of organization, McQuaid pointing out the strength of the trainmen who are 90 per cent organized throughout the country. He told of the working conditions, wages and hours which they had been able to establish.

Miss Leslie gave a brief account of the speech of Mrs. Mary McArthur, the British labor leader, who talked here yesterday. Mrs. McArthur is a leader in the organized women's work of England, which is very similar to the National Woman's Trades council of this country. The Madison women expect to petition for a charter in this organization.

MOVE 900 MOTORS

Big Trucks Distributed to Points of Vantage to Move Troops

(By the Associated Press)

COBLENZ—Nine hundred motor trucks began to move Tuesday midnight from west of the Rhine to the bridgehead area. The trucks are being distributed to various points of advantage among the troops holding the zone east of the Rhine, should the occasion arise for the Americans to start an advance.

The withdrawal from the area of occupation of the 90th and 6th divisions and the 4th and 7th corps continues. The army of occupation at present consists of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th divisions.

Ordered Back

Lieut. Gen. Hunter Liggett, commander of the army of occupation, and Major Gen. Hines, commander of the 3rd corps, who were on their way to London, today were recalled to Coblenz by orders from American general headquarters.

The recalls of Gens. Liggett and Hines, it was learned in Coblenz is part of the new program for the American army in the event the Germans do not accept the peace treaty.

Hold Third Army

The composite regiment of the third army, which was organized for participation in the Empire day festivities in London, in which Gens Liggett and Hines were also to take part, is being held in Coblenz because of the new turn in the peace situation. The regiment may be sent to London and Brussels as intended if the peace treaty is signed within the next few weeks.

The movement of the motor trucks continued throughout Wednesday and most of Wednesday night, and was the topic of conversation among the German civilians in Coblenz. Many civilians complained that the trucks as they rumbled across the Rhine bridges at night disturbed their sleep.

Germans Warned

Because of increased indications of friction between German civilians and soldiers throughout the American area of occupation, American officers today warned the burgomasters and other German officials that they would be held responsible for any violence or any attempts at destruction of American army property.

USE PEACE GRACE TO STOP JINGOES

Extension Period to be Used Partly to Halt Agitators

FEAR BOLSHEVISM

Belief Growing Terror Will Reign if Germany Refuses to Sign

(By the Associated Press)

PARIS—The seven days granted the Germans before the new time limit expires for the submission of replies to the allied peace terms will not be devoted exclusively to the drafting of notes at Versailles but will be employed at Berlin for the purpose of quieting agitations there, according to newspapers here.

It is pointed out that there is an influential party in Germany, made up of independent and majority socialists which favors the signing of the treaty. Bankers, manufacturers and business men generally, as well as the military authorities, are said to share this view, believing, it is declared, that anything is preferable to bolshevism, which might ensue if Germany refused to agree to the terms of peace.

Leaders Exaggerate.

Philipp Scheidemann, the German chancellor, and Gustav Noske, minister of defense, it is said, have compromised their position by exaggerated statements and have placed themselves in a difficult situation.

Newspapers declare that the extention granted yesterday will be the last concession as to the time made to the enemy. If this is true it is expected the treaty may be signed between June 12 and June 16.

Vote is 47 to 26; No Female Can Work More in One Day

By a vote of 47 to 26 the assembly passed a bill establishing a basic 8 hour day for women except those employed in domestic service.

Under the terms of the bill it is declared that the working of any female person more than eight hours in one day, in any mill, factory or shop is injurious to the physical health and well-being of such person, and tends to prevent them from acquiring that degree of intelligence and health that is necessary to make her a useful and desirable citizen of the state.

No female person shall be employed in any mill, factory or shop in this state more than eight hours in any one day except in case of emergency when life or property is in imminent danger; provided, however, said female employes may work overtime not to exceed four hours in any one day, conditioned that payment be made for said overtime at the rate of time and one-half the regular wage.

The assembly concurred in the Pullen bill creating the office of state humane agent and to appropriate $2,500 annually for his force.

A resolution to amend the constitution was offered in the assembly to give the legislatuse power to fix the salary of the lieutenant governor. The assembly adjourned until Friday at 9 a. m.

SAY CHURCH HINDERED IN MEXICO, KOREA

Governments Oppose Foreign Missionaries Presbyterian Convention is Told

(By the Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Mexico is hopeless religiously and appalling socially, and Japan is curtailing the progress of Koreans because of her apathy towards foreign missionaries, according to the report of the committee on foreign missions submitted to the 131st general assembly of the Presbyterian church of the U. S. A. today.

"Mexico needs most of all men of character in her political life" declared the report. "The country's stringent laws regarding religion make it virtually impossible for missionaries to make any progress, and owing to the poverty there social conditions are are appalling."

Missionaries have great influence with the Koreans but the Japanese are unwilling to have foreigners exert it over their subjects, the report recited.

Favor Women In Pulpit

The question of sex equality in church affairs was brought before the assembly in the report of the committee on Polity.

The committee was split on the question the majority report favoring the plan of permitting women to become ministers and elders, and the minority report opposing it.

Action on the report is expected to be taken late today.

ITALY MUST TELL OF MOVE IN TURKEY

Allies Demand Explanation of Secret Landing of Italian Troops

ORLANDO IN CLASH

Greece Premier Leaves Conference After Italian Makes Objection to His Presence

(By the Associated Press)

PARIS — It has been learned in trustworthy quarters that the United States, Great Britain and France have united in sending a note to Italy requesting an explanation of the landing of Italian forces in Turkey.

Premier Orlando is said to have made a reply to the council of four after a sharp personal incident during which he objected to the presence of Premier Venizelos of Greece. The latter retired from the meeting.

Secret Landings

The Italians landed forces at Adalia, Budrum and Makri, during the period when Premier Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino had withdrawn from the peace conference, making the landings without notice to the allies.

The nature of the Italian reply and whether it was acceptable to the senders of the note was not known this forenoon.

The reported Italian incident apparently complicates the Turkish problem.

Battle Way In

In evident anticipation of a Greek mandate to administer the Smyrna district, allied forces were landed at Smyrna last Thursday, meeting with considerable resistance from the Turks. Italian troops were reported to have participated. According to a Paris despatch of May 20, however, the Italians had previously landed forces at Adalia on the southern coast of Asia Minor and likewise disembarked troops at Budrum, 96 miles southeast of Smyrna, and at Makri, on the Gulf of Makri, in the Vilayet of Smyrna.

May Be By Agreement

There had been nothing to indicate that these landings were not by agreement among the allies and, indeed, some of the unofficial forecasts as to the probable division of Turkish territory under league of nations mandatories, had indicated the probability that Italy would be given the Adalia district to administer.

RHINE SCENES NOT AS GOOD AS MADISON'S

At Least Such is Belief of Alfred Marks Now in Germany

In a letter to his sister Lillian A. Marks of this city, Alfred E. Marks now with a detachment of the army of occupation stationed at Greimersburg, near Coblenz, criticires the work of the Y. M. C. A. overseas and says German scenery can't compare with Dane county's

Mr. Marks, who does not know when they will be returned to the United States, in telling of the wonderful scenery of the country in which they are now stationed states that, "It sure don't compare with scenes around Madison."

The section of his letter in which he comments on the Y. M. C. A. follows.

"For almost a year now all I have heard is either the French or the German language. Of the two I prefer the latter; I suppose because I can talk it a little, enough to make any German understand what I want. I have learned practically all my scant knowledge of the language since my time in the army of occupation. Only a couple of times have I had the pleasure of speaking to girls who speak real honest-to-God American. These few instances we met Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. workers.

"If there are any units that deserve donations it is the Red Cross and the Salvation Army. Both of these proved far better than the Y. M. C. A. These two units did their work close to the front. The Y. M. C. A harbored themselves in the rear where they felt pretty safe. It was the triangle organization that bragged their selves up, but ask the boys at the front. They will tell you about the Salvation Army, the Red Cross the Knights of Columbus and well to the rear they might mention the Y. M. C. A.

"Very Sincerely, Alfred."

Gov. Philipp says further:

"It should be borne in mind that Wisconsin was the first state in the Union to organize a council of defense, and it may be interesting to note what a similar service although organized at a later date, has cost other states. In order that you may have this information I give you the comparative figures as they have been gathered by the Secretary of our own Council:

Missouri	$ 69,000.00
Wisconsin	69,495.00
Colorado	71,500.00
Indiana	82,685.00
New Hampshire	94,000.00
California	105,000.00
Rhode Island	150,000.00
Illinois	165,000.00
Ohio	179,000.00
Connecticut	200,000.00
West Virginia	240,000.00
New Mexico	245,000.00
Maryland	735,000.00
Massachusetts	800,000.00
Minnesota	800,000.00
New York	911,900.00
Pennsylvania	1,750,000.00
Michigan	2,600,000.00

"There still remains some work for the council to do. The cost of the organization has been reduced to the salary of a secretary and a marketing agent. The statement of expenditures shows several items of expense for a marketing agent and I submit the following statement as the result of this activity:

Total sales made by the Marketing department to March 31st, 1919	$210,694.00
Lange Canning Company, Eau Claire, Wis., 80,000 lbs. handpicked navy beans at 7¼c per lb.	5,800.00
Jamison Bros., Poynette, Wis., 8,250 lbs. screened navy beans at 6½c per lb.	536.25
J. P. Hebert, Chippewa Falls, Wis., 180,000 lbs. Scotch peas at 3¾c per lb.	6,755.00
Westfield Farmers Produce Exchange, Westfield, Wis., 600 bags seed potatoes at $1.20 per bushel	720.00
Chippewa County farmers, 400 bu. seed potatoes at $1.20 per bu.	480.00
	$224,985.25

The above department devoted its time to the securing of seed and the sale of country produce for which it was difficult to find a market at the time the sales were made; also to the purchase of produce for municipal markets. There remains about 250,000 pounds of navy beans and 3,000,000 pounds of dried peas in the state yet to be marketed, which this department is endeavoring to handle.

I would not wish to dismiss this subject without calling your attention to the fact that there was a well organized Council of Defense in every county of this state and that by far the largest per cent of the service was rendered by the people without cost. The record of the institution will stand as a lasting evidence of the fine patriotic spirit of the people of our state during the period of the war."

LOSS OF COLOR IS OFTEN RESULT OF ANEMIC CONDITION

Complexion Was Improved, Says Michigan Man When He Used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Anemia exhibits its presence in many ways. The victim suffers from indigestion, dizziness, headache, sleeplessness, exhaustion and weakness. One of the surest signs of the presence of the disease is pallor, for thin blood means a lack of red corpuscles which give the blood its color. By building up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the symptoms mentioned disappear and the skin regains color and health.

An illustration of this is the case of Mr. J. A. Schrader who lives at No. 27 Ottawa street, Muskegon, Mich.

"I had been in poor health for three years," says Mr. Schrader. "my illness dating from a severe cold. I lost all my color and didn't seem to have any strength for my work. My stomach was in bad shape and I suffered acute pains in my left side after eating. As a result of the thinness of my blood I chilled easily.

"Nothing helped me until one day I saw an announcement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a newspaper and I procured a box. I had only taken the remedy a week when I could see a decided improvement in my condition and I continued the treatment. My stomach no longer troubles me, I have an excellent appetite and eat without fear of after-pains. My color is good, I sleep soundly and am completely rested in the morning. I have regained my strength and my work no longer exhausts me. Some of my friends are taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on my recommendation.

Your own druggist can supply you with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., enclosing fifty cents for one box or $2.50 for six boxes. Write today for the free booklet "Building Up the Blood."

SENATOR'S SON NOW ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

Robert La Follette Jr., Can Now Get Around; Mother Back at Capitol

Robert La Follette, Jr., oldest son of Senator and Mrs. Robert M. La Follette, who has been ill for over a year has practicall, regained health in the last few months. The life of the boy was practically despaired of a year ago and as a final resort he was taken to La Jolla ,California. Mrs. La Follette accompanied him. A letter in La Follette's Magazine shows that Mrs. La Follette returned to Washington during the past week and that the boy has practically recovered.

"Now that our boy no longer needs me I propose to return to Washington," writes Mrs. La Follette. "We brought him to La Jolla in a wheel chair. He is now well, sitting in the open, dancing in the community house and out of doors all the while. He will stay in this rare environment for a little longer. I am leaving for Washington, leaving La Jolla, a great little place."

Mrs. La Follette writes entertainingly of Wisconsin people who are on the coast including former Senator S. M. Marsh who led the fight in Wisconsin fifteen yea.s ago for prohibition. Mrs. La Follette says: "We are fortunate in finding Wisconsin friends. Jerre Murphy, a brilliant paragrapher and editorial writer, who resigned his position as private secretary to the governor to become editor of a newspaper in Montana, is a resident of San Diego. He was too independent and fearless to make his paper a commercial success. He is doing that with his print shop without sacrificing his standards of what constitutes a good job. The family of little girls have all grown up, but Mrs. Murphy looks just the same. I wonder if it is the climate or that rare inner poise that keeps her so young.

"Clifford Pease, a U. W. graduate, whose father was a life long friend of Mr. La Follette is a successful lawyer in San Diego. Judge Marsh who was a leader in the Wisconsin legislature, when Mr. La Follette was governor is now judge of the Superior Court of San Diego. He has only been here about five years, but he has been district attorney and was chosen judge almost unanimously at the primary and the election. Mrs. Marsh is not only one of the kindest but one of the most efficient women in the world. We shall never forget the Thanksgiving dinner which she cooked and served for ten people all by herself."

MAKE THE HEN EFFICIENT IS CARY'S PLAN

So State School Head Starts Job to Increase Yield Per Bird

C. P. Cary, state superintendent of public instruction, contemplated the price of eggs hanging around 45 and 55 cents a dozen right at the time when hens are putting forth their noblest efforts to fill the storage houses for next fall and winter. He decided to put it up to the rural schools of Wisconsin to increase the average yield of eggs per head and consequently help Wisconsin reap more profits that lie in the egg crop. A beginning is made in Mr. Cary's latest educational bulletin.

Badger Hens Neglected

"Teacher training institutions should show the rural communities how to make the poultry industry profitable. Chickens are kept principally for egg production and yet the hens on the farms of Wisconsin are so poorly cared for that the average hen is a liability rather than an asset. She lays about a third to one-half the eggs she should and these are laid when eggs are the cheapest. The great egg loss to the people of Wisconsin could be easily saved if the wife and the children on the farm could be shown by an experiment in their own school district how hens can be made to lay in the winter and early fall when eggs are costly.

Hens at School

"The teacher training institutions in our state should first demonstrate to the prospective teachers how it may be done by actually keeping about ten or a dozen hens in a small coop on the school grounds. It would be well to build the coop in the fall soon after school starts and then buy a dozen well matured pullets, having some poultry man assist in the selection, that you may get good layers.

"Select pure bred stock—accept nothing else. Have the school buy the birds and the feed and receive all returns. The birds are to be kept till the close of the school year and sold.

Mother Them Good

"Care for hens properly. Keep them in the coop in the winter. Do not allow them to run in the snow. Feed them everything needed to produce eggs—if one ingredient is lacking the egg cannot be formed and the hen will not lay. In the early spring run the incubator and sell pure bred chickens. Have students keep an accurate account of all expenditures and receipts.

"If the young teachers have been trained to care for cickens so that it is a paying industry, they can and should duplicate this project at every rural and state graded school in Wisconsin. Here the country boys and girls could be shown the folly of caring for chickens in the customary way. They could be taught the use of the trap nest, the ration for egg necessary for the hen to lay. This necessary for thehen to lay. This project will show the money value of a high producing hen over the common hen and the value of a flock of such hens as compared with an equal number neither bred for production nor cared for so that they can lay.

Oust the Boarder

"Let the teachers get outside of the text-books and actually do what they are teaching others can be done, but which neither they nor the pupils know exactly how to do and often doubt the very things they are teaching. By this plan we would soon drive the boarder hen from the farm.

CHURCH TODAY IS WEAK IN MAIN DUTY —DEAN BIRGE

Varsity Head Tells Congregationalists of Religious Thought Loss of Late

President E. A. Birge was the principal speaker at the banquet held last night by the Madison Association of Congregational Churches. The meeting, which was the fourth held by the Madison Congregational club, was attended by more than 150 persons.

Other speakers of the evening were: William D. Cairns, Ernest N. Warner, Henry Faville, John Faville and Mr. Culberson, president of Ripon college.

Officers Are Elected.

Officers were elected for the year as follows: Ernest N. Warner, president; ex-Senator John M. Whitehead, vice president; Mrs. H. P. Greeley, secretary and treasurer.

A token of the regard of members who are now in Madison of President Birge's former Congregational bible class was presented in the form of a gift of roses. Prof. M. William D. Cairns spoke on the value of President Birge's work as a bible teacher and gave many reminiscences of the class.

"How Does the Church of Today Justify Itself?" was the topic of the talk by President Birge. That, although the influence of the church has increased beyond comparison with its influence 100 years ago, a feeling the opposite of encouragegent exists among churchmen, was maintained by President Birge.

"Why has this come about? There are two sides to the work of the churh, the religious, which is its fundamental duty, and the social. On the side of religion the church of today is weak. There exists an apologetic attitude toward religion. We now study the bible as literature and Christ as a man rendering service to the people of his time," explained President Birge.

"The religious side has fallen off relatively because there is no longer that cohesive force in society given by religion, that there was when the Protestant church was founded.

Loss in Religious Thought.

"There has been a loss on the side of religious thought. Not long ago I heard a preacher boast that he never preached theology. The clergy have been put in a difficult position because of the indirect influence of science.

"An enormous rise in social consciousness has taken place. A hundred years ago education and a thousand other duties were those of the church. They have now been taken over by the state. The result is that old methods of expressing religion have been taken away and new methods have not yet arisen.

"Most of those who complain about the church say that we ought to do something; but I do not believe that we could make any marked change. There must be a survival of religion. Such a revival cannot be forced; it must come from the heart. I doubt if talking about it can do any good."

Concrete Block Aids Builder in Many Ways

Because of the necessary presence of gasoline and oils required for car operation and mantenance, there has been considerable increase in the fire menace wherever an automoble or motor truck has been added to one's personal property.

There is a peculiar combination of merit and adaptability in Concrete Blocks. Structures built of them are not only fireproof but the architect or builder can reproduce many very pleasing types of architecture. Concrete blocks mean permanence and that means doing away with the annual expense of painting, repair and other maintenance which represents such a burden where impermanent construction is used.

Conditions in the building materials line have been such that for a long time concrete block structures have been built in many places for the same price as less durable construction would have cost. Where there have been occasional exceptions to this, the slight additional first cost has soon been offset by the saving in maintenance and insurance.

Today's Summary —From Europe—

(By the Associated Press.)

Great Britain, France and the United States are reported to have sent a joint note to Italy asking for an explanation of the landing of Italian forces in Turkey. Premier Orlando answered the note and it is reported there was a personal clash between him and Premier Venizelos of Greece which resulted in the latter withdrawing from the meeting of the council.

The difficulty apparently is over the landing of Independent Italian forces in the Vilayet of Smyrna, which the allies are trying jointly to pacify with a view to a mandate to Greece for its administration.

The conclusion of peace between the allied and associated governments and Germany has been removed further into the future by the action of the conference yesterday in extending until May 29, the date for the Germans to submit their answers. According to estimates at Paris there was some expectation that he pact might be signed about June 15, but it now appears that the date of the signature of the document will be a week or more later.

Apparently the Germans contemplate submitting voluminous replies to some of the terms. Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the chief of the German delegation, has asked for permission to bring a printing press from Germany to Versailles, with printers to print the objections that will be made by the enemy government.

It appears the treaty between the allies and Austria may not be presented as soon as expected. Italy is reported not to be satisfied with the boundaries fixed between Italy and Jugo Slavia and this matter must be adjusted before the terms are laid down. There is no indication as yet that the deadlock over the Fiume question has been broken by any definite agreement as to the disposition of the city.

ATTENDANCE SUPERVISOR QUITS JUNE 13

Miss Martha Riley Terminates City School Work for State Job

Miss Martha Riley, for the past seven years supervisor of attendance in the Madison public schools of this city ends her work June 13 to become director of social work for the state of Wisconsin. Her work will be under the direction of the Inter-Departmental Social Board which works for both the state and the federal government.

Miss Riley has been connected with the schools of Madison for sixteen years having begun in 1903 as principal of Seventh Ward building.

Her work for the remainder of the year will be largely with the educational and publicity of the Social Board and later when more clinics have been established throughout the state, she will have charge of the social work in connection with them.

She is at present giving half time to her new work and half time to the city.

Industrial Housing Problems Considered

"Industrial housing is one of the problems before the eleventh national conference on city planning meeting in Niagara Falls and Buffalo next week," said Leonard S. Smith, professor of topographic and highway engineering and Madison's city planner in an interview.

"The solution of industrial housing problems will not be reached until money for building purposes will be available at a low rate of interest. The federal, state, and municipal governments should provide these funds because they are able to borrow money at a low rate of interest.

"England expended more than $1,000,000,000 for the housing of workmen during the war. She found it necessary to provide for her workmen as a war measure."

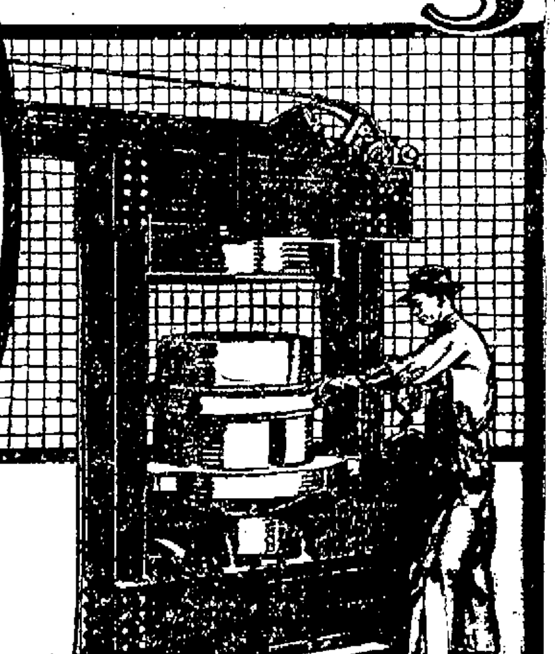

Physical Directors in Great Demand

Because of the increased interest in physical education and athletic activities, as a result of the war, there is now a greatly increased demand for teachers of physical education, play, and athletics in schools and colleges, for directors of playgrounds and gymnasiums, and for teachers and administrators for club and social welfare institutions.

Because of the many draft rejections for physical unfitness, the national bureau of education will present a bill to congress providing for cooperation with the states in the training and payment of directors and teachers. Twelve states at present require physical education in all elementary and secondary schols.

The universoty, besides giving professional courses in the regular term, has just announced an enlarged series of such courses to be given between June 30 and Aug. 3, during the summer session.

Want Baptist Clergy Best Men Possible

(By the Associated Press)

DENVER, Colo.—Raising the standard of Baptist ministers so that none but well qualified men in education, leadership and "backbone" should occupy pulpits of the denomination, is among the recommendations in the report of the committee on standardization of the ministry, which was to be presented to the Northern Baptist convention today. The report of the laymen's survey committee, which outlined a huge financial campaign and world evangelism program for the next five years, also was to be discussed today.

TIME TO INVESTIGATE!

THE Johnson eight hour bill, engrossed ten days ago, was killed in the assembly this morning.

Isn't it time for an investigation of the Big Business lobby over at the capitol?

The lobby killed this bill.

Why did members switch?

Why were others absent?

How much money is this lobby spending?

Isn't it time to uncover hidden forces that are working at the capitol?

THE IDEALISTS BACK OF THE LEAGUE

WE HAVE heard considerable about the idealistic attitude of mind of those who have been drafting the peace treaty. But have we learned in the past to look to such men as Balfour and Cecil and Lord Grey and Taft for ideals in world politics? Discussing this phase of the question the Rt. Rev. Charles Gore, Bishop of Oxford, England said:

The great prophet of this doctrine (the league of nations) was the greatest of all the prophets of modern democracy, that is, Joseph Mazzini. He was a passionate patriot, but always told his Italians that they must first of all vindicate their liberties as a nation before they could do anything for humanity, and must be ready to fight for their nation. But he had always seen that nationalism is only a step on the way to that higher thing which is the welfare of mankind, which must be throned above the interest of separate nations. That is idealism. It strikes a great moral note, and you know how all the traditions of the old industrial and political world are opposed to a moral note being struck. According to them "business is business" and "politics is politics." So it was that the cynics had an easy time. But what has disquieted the cynics is that it is not the people who would be called idealists, not the poets, the clergymen, the normal preachers of idealism, who are putting out this scheme of the League of Nations, but the practical men. There is no one with a knowledge of European politics to rival Lord Grey, and yet Lord Grey said this was not only a good scheme, but the one necessary scheme in which alone he saw the hope of salvation for our civilization. It was Balfour, notoriously skeptical of idealistic schemes, who told us in the same way it was necessary; it was the man with the legal mind, Asquith, who told us the same thing; it was Lord Robert Cecil, it was General Smuts; not people identified with idealism, but the practical men, and men of all kinds in politics. In America, if the President became the prophet of the League of Nations, yet his chief political opponent, ex-President Taft, maintained it first. And why? Why are they striking this high note? They all told us they saw no other way for the salvation of our civilization. They said that if after the war the representatives of the nations, though they might have established never so sound a peace and drawn never so cleverly the boundaries of a new Europe, were to separate and withdraw from that momentous council chamber, and go back to their homes leaving the nations on their old basis of individualistic organization, after a period of exhaustion to begin to build up again forces one against the other, using all the resources of science, now infinitely multiplied and developed in acuteness, for the production of instruments and means of destruction, to wait only till the spark should fall upon the tinder, literally they did not see how our civilization could survive.

THEY LOST INTEREST

THE members of the assembly lost all interest in the Cunningham resolution yesterday when they failed to save their friends, the war profiteers, from being deported along with enemy aliens, disloyalists and others convicted under the espionage act.

The amendment of Henry Huber's that was so reluctantly swallowed over in the senate whereby those profiteers who failed to abide by the decisions of the war board were also slated for deportation was the target for attack on the part of the profiteers' friends in the assembly yesterday. It was eminently fitting that John Donnelly, president of the Slippery club, Arnold Otto, and Geo. Hood should lead the fight to protect the profiteers. Their efforts to jimmy the Huber amendment from the Cunningham resolution failed by a vote of 42 to 31.

Then, rather than offend their profiteer friends, the assembly turned around and killed the whole Cunningham resolution.

All of which indicates, of course, that it is alright to ask deportation—until it affects some of the rich fellows. Then the dollar mark, the god of this reactionary assembly, tells them what to do.

Executive approval has been given to the bill providing that appeals may be made from the county courts direct to the supreme court. Under the old system appeals were made from the county court to the circuit court and a further appeal might then be had to the supreme court. Under this new law circuit courts will not pass on any appeals made out of county courts.

The new drainage bill has practically been agreed upon by all interested persons, and is expected to come into the senate Wednesday or Thursday in substitute form. The measure will greatly aid in the drainage of Wisconsin land and Gov. Philipp believes it to be one of the most important pieces of legislation enacted at this session.

PROBATE LAW IS SIMPLIFIED BY SEN. HUBER

Bills by Dane County Man Eliminates Much of Former Unnecessary Work

That the probate law of the state has been greatly simplified by the enactment of two laws, one at the session of the legislature two years ago and by a measure which has just been approved by Gov. Philipp, is the opinion of Senator Huber, author of the bills.

Shortens Probate.

The older law simplifies the probate procedure and shortens the time required for the probate of estates by about one-third; the later law does away with the expensive and delaying double trials of contested cases on appeals by providing for direct appeals to the supreme court from the county court instead of an additional trial in circuit court before a case reaches the higher court.

Saves Money, Time.

In the legislature of 1911, Judge A. G. Zimmerman of the Dane county court, vrst presented and promoted a bill prepared by him for greatly shortening probate procedure by the unique method followed nowhere else, of providing for notice to creditors to be given at the commencement of administration in the same notice of hearing given for administration, instead of waiting a month or six weeks until letters are issued, thus saving one publication and that length of time there, and by reducing the time of notice to creditors to four months instead of six months, making a total saving in time from three to three and one-half months for completed administrations. This legislation went through one house and was defeated in the other in that legislature. In 1913 it was again defeated in the same way, but in 1915 Judge Zimmerman again persistently pushed the matter and under Senator Huber's active leadership in the legislature of 1915 this most commendable remedial legislation then became a law.

The Appeal Bill.

The direct county court appeal bill eliminating double trials before getting to the supreme court, was first promoted by the county judges' association in the legislature of 1917, and was primarily prepared and pushed in that legislature by Judge Zimmerman of Dane and Judge M. S. Sheridan of Milwaukee county. The bill passed both houses, but was vetoed by the governor. It was again taken up by the association and introduced and pushed by Senator Huber this year, County Judges Zimmerman of Dane, Sheridan of Milwaukee, Lyon of Walworth, Groetzinger of Calumet, and Fifield of Rock appearing before the two judiciary committees of the legislature, with the final result of passage and approval, this time by the governor.

This legislation not only enables direct appeal from the county to the supreme court, but provides for jury trials in county court in all issues of fact where demanded. If a litigant in a contested jury matter prefers, he may have his case tried either in the county or the circuit court, but not in both as heretofore. Contested matters other than jury cases must be tried in the county court only with direct appeal to the supreme court. County courts in counties with a population of less than 15,000 are exempted from the provisions of the act.

With Contested Cases.

While the earlier act thus greatly shortens the time of probate where there are no contests, the latter law results in the same way in contested and appealed cases, besides simplifying the proceedings, reducing the expenses to litigants, and dignifying the county courts by placing them upon the same plane with the circuit courts.

NEW SHOW AT THE ORPHEUM TONIGHT; CROWDS SEE NAZIMOVA

"For Better Or for Worse" Will be Shown at the Strand; Deals With Problems of War

ORPHEUM.

Alfred H. White & Co. will present for the first time at the Orpheum this evening "The Mirror," a comedy playlet by Milton Herbert Gropper. This is a sketch that is said to be quite out of the ordinary, both as to plot and character, with just enough comedy to make things interesting. Fred Lewis, a comedian, who is said to be talented and original, will be on the bill with a routing of songs and stories. Merian's Canines, in "A Wedding Day in Dogland;" Mason & Austin, in frolics, comedy and song; and the Rozelen Trio, offering a musical program, are booked to open their engagement here tonight. Up-to-date newspictures will be shown.

GRAND.

Nazimova has what is in effect a triple personality to interpret, in "The Red Lantern," which is now playing at the Grand. She appears as Mahlee, a Eurasian girl (that is, half white and half Chinese), in which the racial traits of the Oriental and the Anglo-Saxon conflict in moments of elemental passion; and also as Blanche Sackville, an English girl, the natural daughter of the father of Mahlee. As Blanche, Nazimova, for the first time on the screen appears as a blonde. Large crowds are seeing this big attraction at the Grand.

MAJESTIC.

Valeska Suratt, the star in the late William Fox success called "The Soul of Broadway," and which will be shown for the last times today at the Majestic theater, is, as is known to theatergoers the country over, the fashion plate of the dramatic profession. In this sensational photoplay of New York life Miss Suratt is said to change her garments with every 40 feet of film, using something like 150 in all.

"FOR BETTER—FOR WORSE" AT THE NEW STRAND

What is undoubtedly the most tremendous of the vital problems raised by the war forms the basis of Cecil B. De Mille's new Artcraft special feature "For Better, For Worse." Now that he soldiers are returning, the status of the men who stayed at home instead of going to France is being being discussed. Is he to be shunned as a slacker, or is he to be considered as having done his duty?

Edgar Selwyn, a noted dramatist, wrote the play from which Mr. De Mille's picture is adapted and Jeanie Macpherson wrote the scenario. Both from the standpoint of dramatic values and timeliness, "For Better, For Worse" is one of the most important productions which has been shown in this city this season. It will be shown at the New Strand theatre today, tomorrow, and Saturday.

In the cast are Gloria Swanson, Theodore Roberts, Elliot Dexter, and Tom Forman.

The Literary Digest is also to be shown on this program as an extra added attraction. Saturday afternoon the hird chapter of the "Red which is now our Saturday matinee serial, will be presented.

ENTIRE BLOCK FOR MADISON'S FEDERAL BLDG.

Deal Practically Closed for Full Block for Postoffice

There is every indication today that the entire block, bounded by Pinckney, Monona avenue, Wilson and Doty streets will be the site for the new United States postoffice, and not a part of the block on Monona avenue as originally planned.

This information comes from the highest authorities who claim that the deal has practically been closed. The plan is one of the greatest for the upbuilding of Madison and the purchase of the entire block will afford an opportunity for Madison to have a postoffice building in a location that will be ample for all time to come.

"The deal is practically completed," said a leader in the movement today.

Five bids were received from property owners on University avenue who wish to lease to the government for the proposed university postal station, by Postmaster Devine yesterday.

The majority of the bids carried plasn for the construction of a building especially for the post office. According to specifications all proposed sites had to be located on University avenue between Park street and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul tracks.

It is expected to open up the new station about the first of September. Sixteen city carriers, four rural carriers, a superintendent and a clerk will be moved to the new office, which will have chage of all the mail service west of and including Frances street.

The new arrangement will make a big improvement in the mail service for that part of town, said Postmaster Devine.

If the district attorney's motion be granted, the new trial will begin in ten days or two weeks.

NEW YORK—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, will not retire and become president emeritus of the organization after the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor at Atlantic City in June, as reported. Labor men who discussed the report branded it as pure "propaganda" put out a few weeks before the convention by representatives of the radical element in the organization in an effort to unseat Mr. Gompers.

NOT TO TRY MIDDLETON YEGGMEN HERE

District Attorney Heilman Back From Chicago After Investigation

Walter French, motion picture house employe of Chicago, and Steve Jordan, held in the Joliet penitentiary for breaking parole, members of the $1,000,000 gang of Chicago thugs and robbers, who escaped last January after having robbed the Middleton bank of $100,000, will not be returned to Madison, at least for some time, according to the statement of District Attorney Roman Heilman, who returned from Chicago this morning.

"There is little doubt but that French and Jordan are the men who did the job at Middleton and did it alone," said Mr. Heilman. "Having cracked the safe and secured the spoils, they walked boldly to Madison carrying their entire haul in a suit case and a sack and went to the Northwestern station where they boarded a train for Chicago."

The story of the clues and capture and final confession of the robbers reads like any chapter in the history of big crimes. French and Jordan were each to receive $4,000 for their work and the remainder, some $92,000, went to the "big guns, the brains of the gang." But the bonds were hard to dispose of and in four months, French had only received $700 for his work.

He and Jordan found two young girls in Chicago and were living with them. Inquiries concerning this affair opened the way for officials who finally began to press French.

Disgusted and having a rotten deal he finally came clean with the whole story. His confessions besides implicating himself in some 18 robberies and thefts through this section of the country, led to the arrest and discovery of many of the well organized Chicago band.

Steps to bring the robbers here will be dropped until further work in rounding up the gang has been accomplished. Detectives are now working on evidence which will convict Alderman John Powers of Chicago, who took the bonds over from a broker.

Obsolete Poll Tax Wiped From Statutes

Assembly Makes no Opposition —To Codify State Labor Laws

There was no opposition in the assembly to repealing the poll tax law. It was shown in committee hearing that he law was obsolete.

The assembly passed the Sell bill for codification of the labor laws. The assembly tabled the Severson bill for greater publicity of state income returns. The house killed the Anderson bill for the regulation of loan sharks. It adopted an amendment and laid over until Wednesday the Vaughan bill making the county instead of the town the unit for payments under the mother pension law.

The house engrossed the Nolan bill giving cities, villages and towns with large populations larger representation on the county boards of the state. The bill amends the present law by giving towns, villages and wards of cities, having a population of more than 2,000 inhabitants, two representatives on the county board.

The assembly passed a bill appropriating $10,000 for rebuilding the G. A. R. Memorial arch at Camp Randall.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in one form or other, says a well known authority because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts, from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoon in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

AD EXPERT TELLS AGENCY METHODS

The history, the present organization of the advertising agency, and the methods pursued by the agency were explained by Robert Grant, advertising manager of the Milwaukee Journal, yesterday afternoon at an open meeting of Press club.

"Advertising has been called an ineract science and has been surrounded by mystery," said Mr. Grant. The manufacturer used to know his product but he knew nothing about advertising. The need for a connecting link was filled by the advertising agency, which began to work on real ground facts.

"The manufacturer began by contracting all the space in a publication, regardless of whether or not it filled his needs. When honest men saw the manufacturer was being robbed, they established the modern system of advertising. They founded the idea of studying the special need of the manufacturer and of supplying him with what he wants as cheaply as possible.

"Certain informational questions about the condition of a business organization are asked by the agency so as to assure success of the advertisement of that particular business."

Gutenkunst in Race For Badger Manager

Charles Gutenkunst, Jr.

Charles Gutenkunst, Jr., is a candidate in the three-cornered race for business manager of the 1921 Badger. Carl F. Deysenroth and Frank W. Kuehl are the other candidates in the field.

Gutenkunst has had two years' experience on the staff of "The Comet," a publication at Milwaukee West Division high school, and five summers' business experience in offices of Milwaukee manufacturing firms. He is chairman of the sophomore pipes committee and a member of the varsity swimming team.

Villain Who Deals in Romance Can Even Supply Real Stuff

Clarence K. Schubert

FEW villains are dealers in romance, and fewer villains can boast of poetic natures—but Straforel, the dashing gallant swordsman, played by Clarence Schubert, in "The Romancers," the junior class play, fills both these parts and gets away with everybody's friendship even if he does collect a bill for it.

Straforel is "the man of many talents" and feels most pleased with himself when he can brag that he has often "played the marquis and the prince."

The two lovers, Sylvette and Percinet, whose parts are taken by Helen Colby and Fred Bickel, bring Straforel into the plot unknown to them when they set out on a quest for romance. The fathers of the enamoured couple, Ray Holembe and Alfred Bauer as Bergamin and Pasquinet, do a little scheming to provide the romance, and Straforel secures the order to supply the best in his line.

"Pretense of abduction," in Straforel's mind, can be carried out in all classes and at all prices. Because he avoids the commonplace, the best abduction is called the first class with supplements—with sedan chair, mantles, torches, music, and masks. When abduction fails to bring about engagement, Straforel's nimble mind at once invents his own plan for romance in reality, since on his success depends the collection of some ninety tempting gold pieces.

Clarence Schubert, who has the role of Straforel, is a member of Edwin Booth Dramatic sciety.

"The Romancers" will be presented in one performance Friday night at 8:30 in the outdoor theatre. In case of rain the comedy will be given Saturday night.

YANKS' SLOGAN IS TOPIC OF LECTURE

Dr. Theodore Soares, prfessor of the Divinity school, University of Chicago, will address the peace course at 3:30 this afternoon in Music hall. Doctor Soares is known as one of the ablest orators in the Middle West. He recently returned from work among the soldiers in France.

The subject of the lecture, "It Must Never Happen Again" is a slogan which was adopted by the American soldiers just after the signing of the armistice.

Tomorrow—Tom Mix in "Fighting for Gold"

To the Theatre Going Public of the City of Madison

An event of far reaching importance, never before equaled within the borders of the state of Wisconsin is the appearance of four of the World's greatest stars in this city combined in one company, presenting a sensationally successfull play by an American author, staged by an American master of stage technique and sponsored by one of the most daring of all American producers.

The announcement of any one of the following stars at the head of a dramatic organization is sufficient guarantee of the merits of that organization, the combining of a really ALL STAR cast is not only unusual, but it is really an epoch making event in the theatricals of the World.

Negotiations have been quietly progressing for weeks and only within the last few days has the management of THE FULLER OPERA HOUSE been able to meet the demands necessary to secure this worthy and unusual combination of STARS.

It is with a great deal of pride we are now in a position to say, the prime difficulties have been overcome, MADISON theatregoers, and those in our vicinity will have an opportunity to witness an assemblage of theatrical stars, the like of which has never before been placed on tour in AMERICA.

MISS MARGARET ILLINGTON, too well known to require more than a mere mention.

MR. ROBERT EDESON, recognized as the most finished artist in all AMERICA, in his unusual and particular line of acting.

MR. WILTON LACKAYE, famous as a creator of unusual and unique roles since his epoch making creation in that never-to-be-forgotten "TRILBY."

MISS KATHERINE KAELRED, first coming prominently before amusement lovers as the creator of "the vampire" in the World famed production of "A FOOL THERE WAS"—later as leading actress with Sir Beerbom Tree, then STAR throughout Australia and recently creating numerous roles in the more serious and worthy moving pictures.

The entire cast is fully up to the demands such a quartet of STARS demand.

THE PLAY,—"A GOOD BAD WOMAN"—deals with the intimate home life of real flesh and blood people, and is both tense and virile in treatment while its comedy—and there is much comedy—is human.

STAGED by that master of technique—MR. RICHARD BENNETT—in the way that only masters of stage craft are able to do.

PRODUCED by MR. H. H. FRAZEE, who has given amusement lovers more worthy casts than has any other American producer, not forgetting his WORLD'S famous ALL STAR CAST IN "FINE FEATHERS."

THE ENGAGEMENT in MADISON will be but two performances, namely matinee and night SATURDAY, MAY 31st.

THE PRICES Range from $1.00 in the gallery to $2.50 and $3.00 on the first floor for evening performances and from 50c in the gallery to $1.00 on the first floor at matinee.

RESERVATIONS BY MAIL will be filled NOW—when accompanied by check plus war tax, and self addressed envelope.

ADVANCE SALE will open Monday 10 a. m.

TELEPHONE ORDERS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

We have no hesitancy in saying this will be the biggest theatrical event of all time in this city or its vicinity.

Signed

HUGH FLANNERY,

MANAGER FULLER OPERA HOUSE.

With An All-Star Cast Featuring

Gloria Swanson and Elliott Dexter

Here is the story of the man who stayed at home, fighting the battles of humanity against the forces of disease and pestilence, that little children might live—this man branded a coward by the woman he loves because he does not don a uniform!

Note: Cecil de Mille, the master producer of this exceptional photodrama, created such pictures as "Don't Change Your Husband" and "Old Wives for New"—"For Better, for Worse" surpasses either in splendor and is far more massive.

CAMP RANDALL A BIG GARDEN

For Third Time in History Famous Tract Aids Nation at War

Camp Randall has been used three different times to help gain victory for the United States or to make that victory permanent. In 1864-65 the members of the union army were trained on its grounds; last year United States army men were stationed in barracks there; and this year a portion of the land is being used to raise victory gardens.

Eighty school gardens, each 40 by 60 feet, have been plotted out on the lower end of Camp Randall, between Regent and Monroe streets, and are being worked by grown-ups, all employes of the university.

The gardeners are organized under the name of the University Employes' association, with Phil H. Franzen, chairman of the garden committee, at the head. Mr. Franzen sends out suggestions to these small scale farmers about the planting of the gardens. He tells them how to plant, what to plant and the brand of seed that should be planted.

None but employes of the university may join the association and up to the present time not all of the members have been provided with plots due to the lack of space.

Oust News Stands From Business Corners

The newstands on all the various corners have been removed on orders of the street commissioners. Louie Anderson was permitted to have stands on the corners where the public waits for street cars and then Max Shapiro erected one on the corner of West Gilman and State streets. These permits were followed by an avalanche of requests for stands on all corners of the square and State and King streets, and the best solution of this problem, according to the powers that be, was to have all the stands moved.

Milwaukee West Has Edge on State High Track Teams

Lewis of Stoughton Appears Winner In Mile Run; Elsom Has Chance In High Jump

Milwaukee High Schools Expect to Win Interscholastic Again

Milwaukee West Division high school looms up as the likeliest candidate for first honors in the twenty-fifth annual Interscholastic track and field meet to be held at Camp Randall next Saturday under the direction of the University of Wisconsin. Milwaukee North won last year.

The list of 215 entries for 22 schools shows that West High has the best chance of copping as the dope runs. West has Shattuck in the dashes; Felker, Fritchell, and Shotola in the hurdles; Schneider, Dalwig and Robbins in the distance runs; Stone, Juiss and Shattuck good pointers in the jumps; and Post and Brown in the weights. Coach Jennings has the edge.

Riverside Has Hopes.

Coach Craven of North Division expects a good showing with Tews, Tuthar, Trupke, Eggert, Otto, Schmidt, and Strothern. Riverside has high expectations of winning the meet with Joyce, Owen, Timm, Arndt, Taylor, Salentine, Gallun, Holtz, and the Reinke brothers. Washington looks to be a par with East side with a few sure point winners. South side expects to put up a good fight though she has been in hard luck this season. Bad weather has held up much of the practice all spring.

Madison high, Wisconsin high, and Stoughton have entries in almost every event and are expecting to upset some of the careful calculations of the Milwaukee schools. Lewis of Stoughton finished second to Porter Loomis, now varsity man, who won the mile in last year's meet. Lewis is entered for the half and the mile and looks like a probable winner. Rasmussen and Larson are other good Stoughton entries.

Elsom Looks Good.

With McCaffery and Richardson in the weights, the Glasier brothers in the distances and the hurdles, and Kendall and Elsom in the high jump and hurdles, Wisconsin high is likely to roll up a half dozen or more points for Coach Stewart Lawson.

Madison high's material is new and unknown, but McFadden in the quarter, and Jaquish in the 220 have a chance to place.

Stoughton Entries.

Stoughton entries are: Lewis in the mile and half-mile; Siggelkow in the 440; Siggelkow and Sundt in the 220; Landsverk, Usher and Stockstad in the discus; Usher and Stolien in the shot; Larson, Sundt, and Rasmussen in the high jump; Larson in the 100; Siggelkow, Larson and Hegelmeyer in the broad jump; Sundt, Usher, and Landsverk in the javelin.

Wis. High Entries.

Wisconsin high entries are: Glasier and Howard in the mile; Glasier, Smith and Howard in the half-mile; Glasier and Elsom in the 120-yard high hurdles; Taggart and Schmedeman in the 100; Stebbins, Smith and MacMurray in the 440; Schmedeman, Carr and Stephens in the 220; Glasier in the 220-yard low hurdles; Teal and Page in the pole vault; McCaffery and Richardson in the discus and the shot put; Elsom, Teal and Carr in the high jump; Stehr, Richardson and Teal in the broad jump; Stehr, Taggart and McCaffery in the javelin.

Madison High Entries.

Madison high entries are: Haessler in the 100; McFadden, Friedl and Wrend in the 440; Jaquish and Scholl in the 220; Rundell in the 200-yard hurdles and the half-mile run; Hilsenhoff in the pole vault; Goodland and Chorlog in the discus; Goodland and Chorlog in the shot put; Wright in the high jump; Scholl in the broad jump; and McFadden in the javelin.
